ACADEMIC HONESTY

All individual work submitted must be yours alone. If it is determined that academic dishonesty occurred, a 0 will be assigned to the entire, test, paper, project, or activity on which violation occurred. In addition, the parent/guardian of all students involved will be notified. If you furnish answers, research, or in any way help another student submit work not completed by them, both students will receive a grade of 0 on the assignment in question.

HORTICULTURE

2011-20012

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Within this course students will learn the parts of the plant and the biological makeup, the purpose of horticulture, how horticulture is used in society, and how to propagate. Students will also explore the world of floriculture. Within this course students will memorize plants name and group they belong in.

Students will also learn how to grow annuals and perennials and how to operate a greenhouse.

Business people that work in the horticulture area will come into the classroom and explain their connection to horticulture. Students will have the opportunity to interact with these business people.

Over the next 9 months, you will be required to:

- Do your homework
- Be on time
- Participate in class discussions
- Maintain academic honesty
- Work diligently in the greenhouse
- Stay on task when doing labs and other activities

POLICIES

Grading Policy

Homework: 35%

Quizzes: 15%

Tests: 30%

Labs: 20%

Homework

Homework will mainly consist of, but not limited to, reading your textbook, gathering information on current events, or work on your project. It is IMPORTANT that you stay current on the homework

Attendance

Regular attendance is your key to your success in this class. PCHS attendance policy will be followed in this class.

Late Assignments

Assignments will generally be accepted late. Late assignments will lose 10 points for each calendar day that it is late.

Make-up Work

You are responsible for finding out what work has been missed during your absence, and you are responsible for determining how you will complete that work. You may e-mail me for your missed assignments at ckoester@pchspanthers.com Any work missed must be made up within two calendar days of your absence. Other arrangements will be made for absences longer than 2 days

Extra-Credit

Students have the opportunity to attend FFA events for extra-credit. See me for details.

Computer requirements

To keep yourself organized make a folder in the document folder.

Then organize your folder by each Unit of the class.

I expect that you will keep everything organized so that it is accessible for tests and final exams!!
